

SPOTLIGHT ON SUCCESS

A Compendium of Never-Before-Published Training Top 125 Best Practices and Outstanding Training Initiatives

Dear Training Professional:

“Practice what you preach” is what’s driving Training magazine’s new information initiative, which packages the “learning” from our Training Top 125 winners and delivers it directly to your company.

Subscribe to our new service, and every quarter you will receive 25 never-before-published Best Practices and Outstanding Training Initiatives developed by Top 125 winners. Available in PDF format, this new service allows you to easily share information with members of your training organization...and your entire organization.

Critical content you can expect from a source you can rely on to:

- Motivate employees and increase employee retention
- Hone your current training efforts
- Share what works from the industry’s best
- Provide the latest training innovations in the U.S and globally
- Offer the latest technology-based training
- Build Leadership Development and Talent Management programs

Special introductory offer launching in October 2008:

$800/quarter; includes a PDF of 25 never-before-published Top 125 Best Practices and Outstanding Training initiatives, plus a searchable spreadsheet of past BPs and OTIs from the last two years!

For more information and to sign up for this service, please contact Diane Driscoll, director, Licensing & Custom Media, at 646.654.4677, diane.driscoll@nielsen.com.